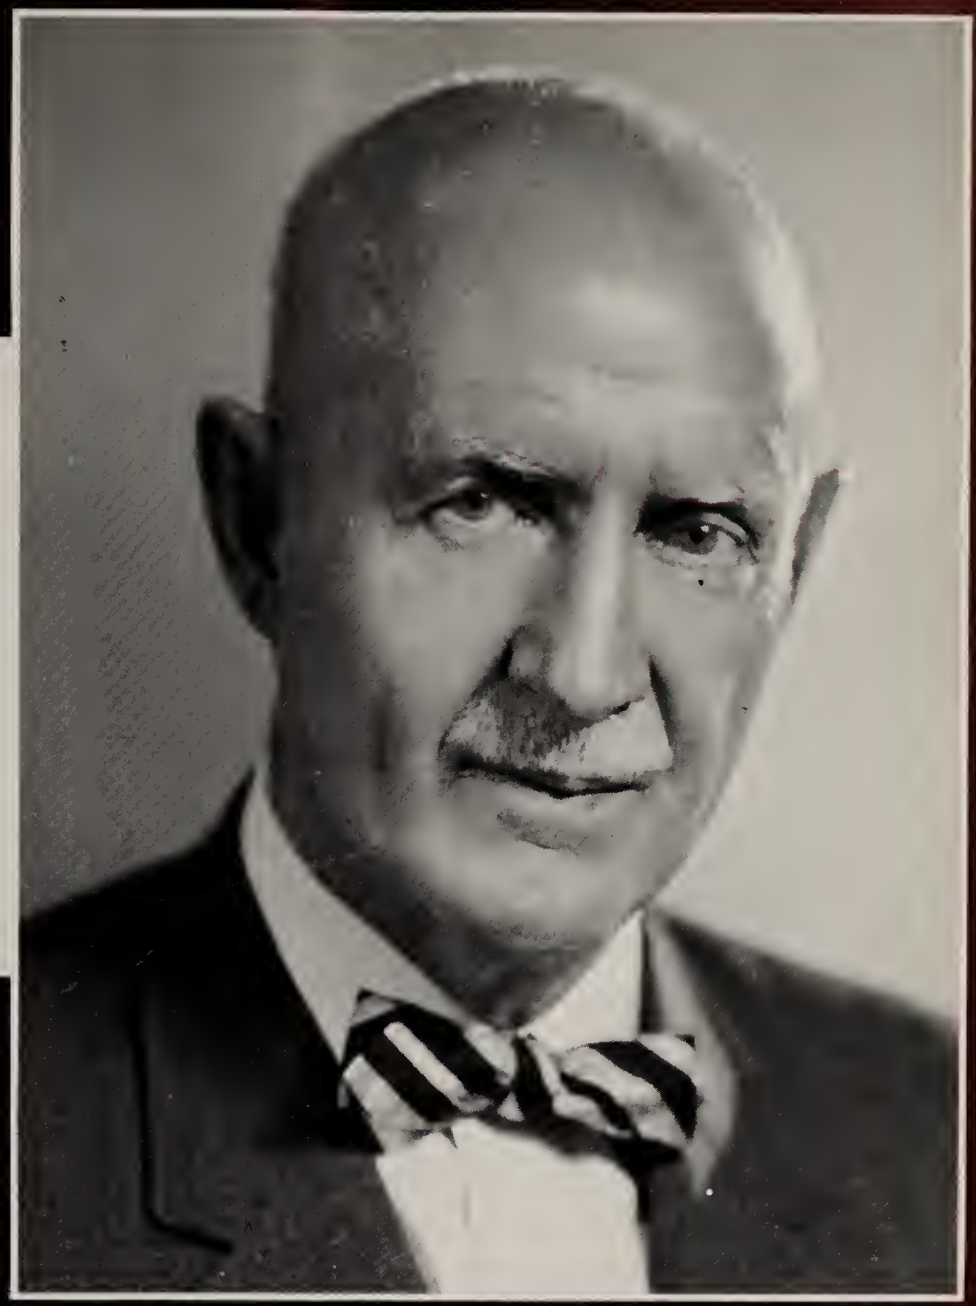
DEDICATION

The teacher is in a position to influence profoundly the lives of the students whom he teaches. The richest moments in a student's life are those dynamic moments in which learning occurs, stimulated by the involvement of one who bears the responsibility of his position as a teacher.

In recognition of his influence in our lives, of his honesty in dealing with our problems as students, and of his devotion to real education, the Class of 1966 dedicates this edition of the Quadrangle to

ROBERT J. ROCKABRAND.

John Finley Williamson



Years ago, a dream was born in the hearts of two people, a dream of sound and service which through faith and hard work has been brought to fruition and become a reality. The reality has grown, reaching over the whole world, touching all of us. Let us not forget these two people and their dream which has made our own dreams possible.

TEACHING

THE PRESIDENT

LEE HASTINGS BRISTOL, JR.

We can believe that ours is a time of unprecedented opportunity for the musician when we realize that we can perform for more people in one half-hour on television than have entered Carnegie Hall in 25 years or J. S. Bach played to in his lifetime!

Here's hoping you will want to continue to grow musically, intellectually, and spiritually in the days ahead through self-study, practice, listening, reading, exposure to other teachers and institutions and influences that can augment and reinforce, and association with others who are trying to grow as well.

To you of the Class of 1966—the first class I have "seen through" four full years as President—go especially warm greetings and best wishes for the years ahead.

DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

Dr. Eicher has, as Dean of the College, worked with untiring patience, wisdom, and dedication for the growth and development of the college. In this time of expansion and experimentation it has been a Herculean task, and we all owe him a deep vote of thanks for his strong hand and guidance.

MUSICAL DIRECTOR

We are most fortunate to have the privilege of working with Dr. George Lynn, our musical director. An eminent conductor, composer, arranger, organist, and vocal teacher, he nevertheless takes time to care about everyone with whom he comes in contact. In all that we do, he stands behind us, pointing always to the way of growth, challenging us to be better than our best. His presence in our lives is a truly enriching one.

Elected sponsor of our class in 1962, Robert Simpson has been much more than that to us. Most of us came to know him best when our Chapel Choir—the first Freshman Choir to go on tour—toured Western Pennsylvania for one week in mid-March of 1963. Perhaps, this is the initial event to which most of us can trace our admiration for Mr. Simpson. Here he proved to be not only an excellent musician and fine conductor, but a friend to each of us and a friend to us as a class. We would like to thank Mr. Simpson for the help he has given us, and the example he has set for us.

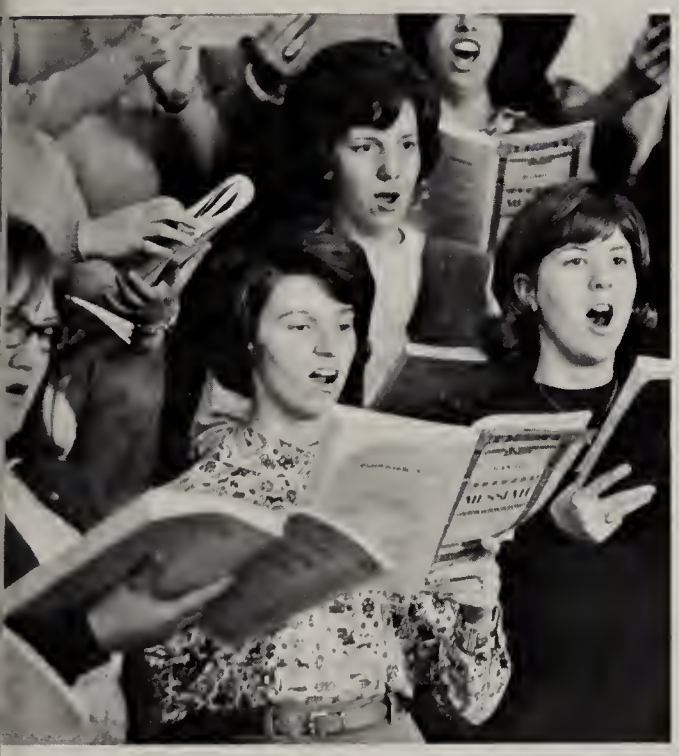
CHAPEL and SYMPHONIC



CHOIRS

WESTMINSTER CHOIR

To be chosen as a member of Westminster Choir is one of the greatest honors and thrills a student can receive, for this choir represents the acme of technical and musical growth. This year the choir has had an especially exciting season. In addition to singing with the Symphonic Choir and touring the West Coast during the month of March, they sang an anniversary concert in Town Hall in the spring. The 40-voice touring choir is probably the best single representative of the college, its heritage, its achievements, and its goals.

Westminster . . .

Washington . . .

Boston . . .

Tour . . .

SYMPHONIC CHOIR

Symphonic Choir, composed of the sophomores, juniors, and seniors of the college, learns major works each year to be sung with world-famous conductors and orchestras. This season started dramatically with five performances of Mahler's Eighth Symphony in New York under the direction of Leonard Bernstein. The spring included a performance of Bach's B Minor Mass in celebration of the college's Fortieth Anniversary.

CHAPEL CHOIR

With an exceptional large first year class to draw on, the Chapel Choir was made up of unusually fine voices. Under the direction of Associate Professor Robert Simpson, they sang an impressive schedule. Fifteen concerts were sung in schools and churches in the Pennsylvania-New Jersey area, including a performance of The Messiah at Old First Church in Newark and the Mass in C Major by Haydn with the Queens Symphony Orchestra at Forest Hills, New York. With a two-week spring tour into Delaware and Maryland, this choir became the College's "singing ambassadors" in the East while the Westminster Choir was touring the Western states.

THE ORCHESTRA

Under the direction of Mr. Nicholas Harsanyi, the orchestra provides an outlet for the instrumental talent on campus. In addition to participating in various vocal and keyboard ensembles throughout the year, the members of the orchestra put on a concert in the spring. This year their repertoire includes Schumann's Piano Quintet and a Mozart Quartet.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of Westminster Choir College serves as the official link between the administration and the Student Body. The past year has seen great strides in the effectiveness of its communication. The council is composed of the president and a representative from each class. Working as a democratic unit, they have drawn up a new constitution, effective this semester, written a new honor code, and taken an opinion poll on various issues. The Social Chairmen, working with the council, have instituted many weekend activities which accelerated social life on campus

WOMEN'S COUNCIL

This council of active young women is elected to serve the community of women residents. They do so by presenting a line of communication between student and administration. The council also sponsors annually "Open House" and the Halloween Dance plus encouraging smaller group activities. Probably more noted for the "call-down" than its many reforms this council is out to insure the rights of the individual.

MEN'S COUNCIL

The Men's Council is an organization composed of three elected representatives from each class. The Council is but the small body of the larger organization, the Men's Student Association. The Men's Council serves as a "clearing house" for the larger body. The purpose of the Council is to serve as an effective voice for the male student population and to perpetuate a pleasant and harmonious atmosphere in dorm living. Complaints, requests, suggestions, and passage of regulations effecting the welfare of male students are channeled through the Council. Through close rapport between representativse and their respective classes, the will of the men is exercised.

CHRISTIAN LIFE COUNCIL

As the coordinator of religious life on campus, the Christian Life Council is of vital importance. This year the Council has revitalized the entire religious atmosphere with many new ideas and activities. Among these are morning prayer services twice a week, and monthly evening communion services. Perhaps one of the most important undertakings was a clothing drive for Cuban refugees, and the distribution of chapel offerings to mission fields across the world.

MUSIC EDUCATORS NATIONAL CONFERENCE

President—James McCallum
Vice-President—Laurel Becker
Secretary-Treasurer—Judith Salvesen

The Westminster Choir College student chapter of MENC works toward providing its members with new and better ideas of their role as music educators in the school and community. It gives them the opportunity to broaden their horizons through state and regional conferences, as well as through the ideas of leaders in the field of education.

WHO'S WHO

The students recognized each year by this organization are nominated from approximately 800 colleges and universities. Campus nominating committees consider the student's scholarship, his participation and leadership in academic and extra-curricular activities, his citizenship and services to the school, and his promise of future usefulness. We take great pride in having five students from our campus so honored.

The Chapel Singers are a group of students who were selected to participate periodically in our weekly Chapel services as their choir. Ugh! A five year plan!

Can I be a bunny too?

ME?? Play in organ class??

May I make a suggestion, Johann?

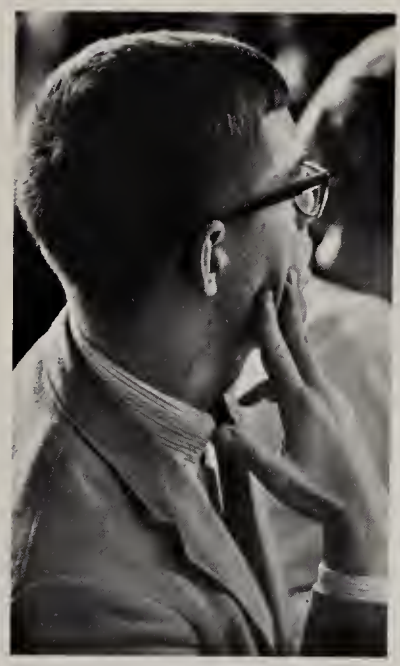
Ooooh!

Don't ask ME how I got here!

Would you be a choir mother?

Do you know this war-horse by Liszt?

Dancing to the Liebeslieder



Oh! my wisdom tooth!

Who'd like to volunteer?

Look, Ma! No "bod"!

But it's a left-handed violin!

Cooties!

Every Good Boy Does Fine

Don't YOU have a piano in your laundry room?

"Schroders geistliches Gesangbuch"

Yes, Mrs. Lancelot, I cleaned my plate.

Out damned spot!

I once knew a girl in Denver . . .

From Russia with love

You mean it's right?

Hey! I've got five fingers!

It's the maid's day off.

I'm 13 minutes and 2 bars into the work.

"Simon says . . ."

ANOTHER FIVE-OCTAVE, SIXTY-ONE NOTE

"Arlington"* CARILLON

INSTALLED AT WESTMINSTER CHOIR COLLEGE, PRINCETON, N. J.

The growing acceptance of the "Arlington" Carillon is good news for organists! Schulmerich is the world's ONLY producer of modern bell instruments with both English and Flemish type tuning, as well as chimes, thus providing percussion instruments meeting the requirements of any church or institution. Both bell instruments have all the traditional partials, including the rich, colorful minor third distinguishing a true bell tone from chimes which lack this quality.

The Schulmerich "Arlington" Carillon is the ONLY modern instrument having the sub-octave hum tone which together with its other partials identifies the Flemish type tuning. All types of harmony—major, minor, augmented, and diminished chords or any other type of chord, arpeggio or trill, can be played without restriction. With its 61 bells, 5 octave chromatic range, played from one keyboard, all types of carillonistic effects are possible. Individual expression pedal controls for bass and treble bells provide wide dynamic range for solo and accompaniment so necessary to true carillon music.

Truly, The "Arlington" is the 20th Century carillon embodying the tradition and color of the finest cast bell instrument. While retaining all the desirable features of cast bell carillons, undesirable factors such as tremendous weight, huge tower construction, keyboard limitations, complex automatic operation and enormous cost are eliminated.

If you've dreamed of the unfettered use of bells from the tower or with the organ, investigate The "Arlington" Carillon now! Write to:

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The planning, organizing, and compiling of a yearbook publication is a task that requires much work and cooperation from many people. The staff this year has sincerely tried to compile a yearbook that has been given much thought for creativity, and has tried to compile a yearbook creditable to Westminster Choir College.

The staff has worked conscientiously and continually and an acknowledgement of gratitude is not sufficient. Each member not only adhered to the job he was assigned, but worked on anything that was necessary to be done. My appreciation to Bill Palmatier, assistant editor; Bonnie Bird, literary editor; Katherine Ruof, business manager; Susan Broadwell, typing editor, who also spent many hour soliciting advertisements; Mary Dempsey, our freshman representative; and Terry Madeira, photography editor, who organized so well our photography schedules. My deepest thanks to Cindy Jones, art and layout editor, for the many hours she spent in doing a fine creative job.

Dr. D. Lincoln Harter was an excellent help in providing us with many photographs from his file. My thanks also to Miss Lois Laverty, our advisor.

Many students volunteered their assistance throughout the year. Randy Corder, Ilsa Duke, Jean Swenzer, and Beth Barkley helped with our potrait photography. Helping to assume the responsibility of soliciting advertisements were Paula Fitzgerald, Mary Murrell Bennett, Jim Hejduk, and Philip Frowery. Many thanks to Vivian Endicott who wrote the yearbook dedication and to Sally Baldwin who wrote the Senior Class' note of appreciation to Mr. Simpson. John Hayward was an excellent help in photographing some faculty.

No yearbook would be possible without sponsors. And so, we owe a special note of gratitude to our patrons and advertisers. To Taylor Publishing Company and their representative, Mr. Norris Ashe, we are grateful.

Our photography was done by Glick Studios of Philadelphia. Words cannot express enough appreciation for the fine work they did for us. The staff would especially like to thank Mr. Ronald Weinmann who photographed our excellent candids.

As for me, working as Editor of this year's Quadrangle has been a wonderful experience. I would like to thank also the student body for all the cooperation they offered and so I hope this yearbook will help recall wonderful friends and experience for years to come.

Frances Ann Cave
Editor-in-Chief
